

d. Any financial or other obligations incurred by the student during the duration of the program, including without limiting the generality of the foregoing any obligations or liabilities incurred by the participant in any country in which the program is conducted.

4. a. OWU reserves the right to terminate the student's participation in the program for failure to maintain program standards or if either the Program Director or Resident Director deems his or her acts of conduct detrimental to or incompatible with the interest, harmony, comfort, or welfare of the program as a whole. In the event this latter condition should occur, the Director will notify the student in writing, and a copy of the reasons for the action will be brought to the attention of OWU and the University of Salamanca. Any illegal use of alcohol and, or, drugs will constitute grounds for expulsion. NO REFUND WILL BE GIVEN .

b. If performance of the program must be altered, because of war, strike, weather, government restrictions or regulations, act of God, or any other like reason, OWU shall have the right to make such alteration or cancellation of part or all of the program as OWU in its discretion deems necessary and only those funds not actually used or committed will be refunded to the student. The amount of any refund in each individual case shall be determined by OWU at its sole discretion.

c. If the student's cancellation results from any of the conditions enumerated in this Release, the provisions of this document, rather than the provisions of any other OWU literature concerning refunds and cancellation penalties, shall control refunds.

5. All of the terms and conditions set forth in this announcement shall be deemed incorporated into and part of any contract between OWU and the student.

6. For purposes of this document, OWU shall include OWU and all of its trustees, officers, employees, and agents. The provisions of this document shall be binding on the student and his/her heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and assigns.
